Subject: LSJ Bruce White Resignation

Jeffrey

As you know Bruce White has given 4 weeks notice, he was officially informed today that he would not be receiving the remaining 21 days of his vacation for 2010. Over the last few days he has become increasingly agitated and upon hearing this news was quite annoyed and mentioned that he will speak to his attorney to clarify this situation.

He seems to think he has some form of entitlement and does not seem to be able to reflect upon your generosity in the past. I have deep concerns that his attitude/comments would effect the work force on LSJ and therefore would recommend that today be his last day on LSJ and be paid the remaining 10 days hereby completing his 4 weeks notice.

please advise

Brice
