Jinky called Janusz this morning and said she is quitting and didn't show up for work today. I've tried calling her, and left her a voicemail. Apparently she and Louella had an argument yesterday. I think we should have [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] come back to PB with us on the 26th and help out until we can find a replacement. Louella will come in tomorrow, and I will have Janusz do breakfast on Sunday morning.
