I have several great people in mind.

- 1) Mark Seiden
- 2) Pablos the Hacker Holman and 3ric Johanson (who both now work for Nathan M)

We should hold a small seminar on this stuff... because I'm trying to work on methods to allow scientists and others to communicate in a method over the web that will defeat government censorship (as Iran did to Facebook users; as Iran did when they shut down Gmail; as China did when they hacked into human rights workers campaigns; etc.)

I am very much aware of several remarkable Israeli folks (friends of Yossi Vardi) who do this stuff at high levels... but I think getting them to visit you might be a problem.
