Dear Dear Jeffrey!

How are you?

I do not believe that everything what has happened to me is true.
I had return ticket on November 5th. Today is March 3.
I got the notice of deny, my lawyer has already appealed.
I try to be strong, I should wait, I can make travel visa but that would be for several month, it is better to wait several weeks or months to have several years and make up my mind for smth new)
Would you allow me to keep my account for some more time?

I started to write for russian fashion magazine!

I want to find a way to write for it from NY to Moscow about fashion and all new yorkers life style.

People here are crazy about it)

I'm happy that I start to do something because waiting kills me.

What is new with you?

Where are you now?

Did not you like this girl on the pictures I send?

All my dreams come true usually, the only one is just so hard.

To see you becomes more and more difficult with every year.

But I will never give up.

I will do my best to be at home ASAP.

Kiss you,

Miss you,

Me&Myself

Best regards,
