Hi Jeffrey,

Thank you so much again for taking your time with me today! On the way home i was thinking about everything again. If the PR thing you mentioned works out will be great, especially that I really have experience in that area from working in Moscow. I also thought of an idea of a personal assistant and, you are right, as always, it can be really good for me! Meanwhile I will work on my voice and my English everyday... I'm sending you my resume just in case..

Jeffrey, as I said I am living a pretty nice life right now, thanks to you, thanks to Leon. I can travel whenever I want to, buy nice things, support my parents, but very often I feel that it's not enough and I can do better, i know you understand.

Thank you!!!!
Talk to you soon!
