I am fed up with these girls and want nothing to do with them at the moment. I don't have the patience to deal with them, talk to them, teach them share a home with them or pretend I enjoy their company..

Yet you expect me to take them shopping and teach them to cook. I told you I was happy to make you my eggs myself but for some reason you only wanted food from [REDACTED].

You were clear about telling me not to cook and worry about anything because you were going to have all this help from [REDACTED] and other staff. She was going to make tea, cook, make you breakfast and take care of your errands..

It's a bit amuzing that the girl you describe as more helpful because she can make you breakfast at 30 years old can't make a peanut butter and jelly sandwich, tell the difference between mint and parsley, fry an egg or set up a table...

It is clearly frustrating to hear you constantly complain about me and label her as helpful seeing she is incapable of doing the simplest of things. To be clear, I don't dislike her at all, I think she is cute and funny but about as helpful as a 6year old and just as clingy..
