Subject: Plan :)

Is not 100% ready yet, but I have it in my mind. Just tell me what you think. I'll stay here one more month to try to work more, and after go home and try to find beautifull mathematicians girls. U just have to teach me what to tell them, what to offer them! If I find a few(even one at least :p) I would be able to move to London, rent an apartment there in may and try to get a normal job. I can start from low level, I know I have no experience. I'm serious, I have to stop having fun and built myself a carrier...and not in modeling.

Is it true that [REDACTED] can't stand me? :)

I was embarrased to ask, but could you help me with some money?

And...thx for the nice cumme ;)
