Title: Reactions to Wednesday's dinner for William and Annabel Astor

I did not mean to hit the send button yet...I have more reactions to send you.

I want you to understand the depth of the effect your support has on my life, my business opportunities, my social effectiveness and my general happiness. I do not take your support lightly and try every day to live up to your generosity.

It breaks my heart and make me furious that my brother within ten years after my father's death 21 years ago managed to loose so much of his money. That money was the result of 60 years of my grandfather and father working 7 days a week so we could have a better life. I was so proud of my family's accomplishments and my idiot brother (who to this day my mother insanely defends), has disgraced the family. My mother bailed him out and now she lives in Palm Beach selling her jewelry to make ends meet....and moronically justifys her situation by saying, "it could have been Maddoff."

So I always want to do my best to make my father proud and live up to his standards....and now it gives me such inspiration to try to make you proud of me and know you are getting a lot of bang for your buck.

xoxo Peg

More to come.

#3. From Mark Fletcher and Tobias Meyer, auctioneer for Sotheby's.

Peggy...you are the ultimate. Last night was pure magic...every minute. You really did something great for your friends...visiting and the local ones! I hope you had a great time of it too.

Something being sent to your office today from Tobias/me today. THANK YOU for including us. We will remember it always as one of the great New York evenings!
Hope to see you next in Los Angeles early March.

Much love as always.

Mark

#4. From Brad Comisar, Julia Koch's dead brother's lover and now member of the family

Peggy:

Brava on hitting it out of the park last night: you assembled such an amazing collection of friends from both sides of the pond! I loved Vicky and also enjoyed catching up with Allison. You were sweet to include me and I had such a fabulous time.

Hope to see you in NYC or on Koch Air soon!

XO Brad

#5. From Louise Grunwald

Dear Peggy,

You certainly are the hostess with the mostest. The party was fun with so many eclectic people, and I did have the great seat. Thank you for a really special N.Y. evening.

Fondly,

Louise

#6 From Euan Rellie

It was a triumph and fun. Thanks and congrats.

Pegster,

Best dinner ever!

Thank you. Can't wait for full report on DR.

Xx

#8 From English Ariadne Calvo-Platero

That was an absolute triumph, Peggy, a fabulous evening full of the great and the good and a buzz and bubble that was entirely palpable. Brava and thanks for including us. Have a lovely trip to the DR. xxA
