Jeffrey:

I heard about the FDA approval of their drug earlier in the month. Their stock had a nice rise after the announcement, although now hovering at 27.35. This is great news for many with walking problems. Interesting enough, I know my physicians are to keeping me on a plateau awaiting this type of new MS therapy medication. As Faith may have mentioned, I'm exploring venues to help myself and others. In this connection, I thank you for all the information you have provided me.

Best-Michael
