Subject: FYI: links to a few interesting scientists I met with yesterday at MIT and Harvard while working on a B-School philanthropy project

I. Donald E. Ingber.

(Likely all the people in his group at the Wyss Institute --which he has put together working closely with Hansjorg Wyss will be fascinating.
On Wyss, see: <http://www.alumni.hbs.edu/awards/2007/wyss.html>)

II. Geoffrey von Maltzahn
