Subject: Boat outing

I think it would be nice day for a boat ride! high temperature will be 74 degrees by noon today, currently it is 63 degrees, I'm having trouble with my #1 engine, I worked on it all day yesterday, Its the starter solenoid, and will be delivered on Monday,
Its time to for me to run the Midnight Express engines, if you don't mind, I could use that boat for the Jean Luc ride?

thanks,
Larry
