Subject: Amsterdam to Newark

Title: Amsterdam to Newark

We are on the NorthWest 791 flt now. About to take off. We are exhausted from laughing. Had a fabulous time. The security in Amsterdam was very very tight. They poured thru every item in our bags because we fit the profile of trouble. My hips went off at every detector.

We have many stories to tell...including Mattie's imatation of Lamu donkey bonking.

Wrote my story about being an extra on Wall Street 2 for "Avenue" in Lamu and on the planes. Mattie thinks I should have covered the mating habits of the donkeys and the Masai instead.

It was so so hot in Lamu. About 90 with a breeze everyday. We are bracing ourselves for the cold. Taking off. See you stateside.

Our best Swahili is "Lala salama" which means sleep well.....Mattie has been sleeping on the floors of every airport....a bit like the homeless...but she is rallying for Newark.
