i'm in seattle! i flew in to fort lauderdale for [REDACTED] nephew's briss (not sure how to spell it?) and then flew out a few weeks back. [REDACTED] prefers to NOT be around his family.

boris is there now, i'm sure you guys will have a great time!!

just sent more mail.
