Subject: did you ever...

meet John Cacioppo?
He is one of the most fascinating people I've met through Barnaby.
Brilliant -- equal parts deep insight/intuition and quant/analysis/system builder

He is the co-founder of the field of social neuroscience

Over the last few years, he organized, within UChicago, an "umbrella" for bringing together interdisciplinary teams to study tough problems.

Anyhow, if you haven't met him -- you might enjoy bringing him to NY or FLA to meet you...
