Good morning Jeffrey!

Did you miss my omelet this morning?

I cannot express how wonderful it was to see you and spend time with you and be with you and cook for you. It was such a short trip it felt like a dream. A great dream! I hope to come back soon and spend more time with you.

I rang my mother from the car (of course) and told her about Rose Gold. Love it. I'm leaning towards www.bestofrosegold.com. Any more brilliant ideas?

I send you lots of love. Love and prayers!
