Dear Jeffrey,

Thanks for your email. I'm on the final stretch (literally I suppose... my poor little perineum has no idea what's about to happen). Trying to stretch it with an eggplant. I'm 37 weeks due on December 23rd so am full term and could deliver any day, although might deliver late since it's my first.

I feel very well. I had a bout of terrible food poisoning and was in the hospital for dehydration but am back to normal. IV was blissful.

I'm in the process of moving out of my apt and into [REDACTED] place. It's an odd feeling not having my own living environment since I've never lived with someone before. But I will manage.

I've taken time off from work, am fully engrossed in writing and will be looking into courses starting January.

Take good care of yourself. I do hope that I will see you soon.
