Jeffrey!! It was spectacular to see you yesterday!! You looked great and just seemed really well and happy! I have never met anyone with a stronger positive attitude and outlook than you. It's really phenomenal and I feel so lucky and grateful to be a (small) part of your life...for almost 9 years now! (how is that possible!!...9 years!??) I will never forget my interview with you and how you hired me on the spot!

I can't believe it, but yesterday was the first time I set foot in your house...WOW, sooo magnificent!

I hope you had a great and productive day here in NY with the time you had (knowing you, you did!). Nice that the weather was tremendous as well ☺

Take care and hope to see you again real soon (here!)

☺ xo, Les
