

To: Chuck Over [REDACTED]
From: Tramo, Mark Jude
Sent: Sun 12/6/2009 6:51:13 PM
Subject: RE: Apotheosis of a King Who Lost His Kingdom

From: Chuck Over [REDACTED]
Sent: Sunday, December 06, 2009 11:43 AM
To: Tramo, Mark Jude
Subject: The Apotheosis of a King Who Lost His Kingdom

Hi,

I'm a music lover from France. A few weeks ago I heard your record "The Apotheosis of a King Who Lost His Kingdom". I hope that your are the same Mark Tramo. If not, I apologize for the mistake.

I really like this album. So, I hope to find a copy for sale and you're probably my only and best chance. This is the big question : do you know where can I buy it (in vinyl)?

Have a nice day.

Best regards,

Alex.

---

Vous êtes étudiants ? Bénéficiez de Windows 7 à 35% ! Découvrez notre offre !
<<http://www.windows-7-pour-les-etudiants.com>>

*****

Thank you for your email and kind words, Alex -

The limited number of vinyls plated by Windsor Records sold out years ago - however, thanks to a wave of recent interest in "Apotheosis" from NY to California to Japan (and, now, France!), efforts to reissue the vinyl and release CDs are underway. We haven't committed to one as yet - if you are aware of a reliable label(s) in this niche, your recommendations would be greatly appreciated.

In the meantime, and with apologies for the sins of digitization, an mp3 of a track from the album, "The Corporation Song", is available at myspace.com/MenWithTales.

Sincerely,
Mark

[REDACTED]
www.BrainMusic.org
tel [REDACTED]