Just looking in my schedule - for sure i will be in London during 3rd week of January.

I will be there for few days just before Davos (I must arrive in Davos on Jan 26th). Also, I can be after Davos as well (although this might change as I am probably traveling with Bill to India from Davos).

If necessary, I can go there even before - although 3rd week in January would be the easiest.

Also, pls let me know if there is anyone in Davos whom I should meet (I can send you a list of attendees).

B

The big idea and one that will make you rich beyond comprehension , is that we should craft a new financial system. global, currency,, the financial is still antiquated, religion has changed more than money. attacking problems from a martians viewpoint,. disease should be looked at as uncovering the disease algorithm , not solving one example and then on to the next.. the problem s not intractable
