I called your house Friday night when it came on (Channel 29 10-11pm news) because it would air again on the 11pm news on their companion station, but got no answer. The piece was about the Rothstein law firm scandal and how it re-victimizes the "victims" of your assaults. The gist was that these girls have been victimized by you and now they are being victimized again by having their law firm go under during litigation. They showed your picture in court for the plea and the video of your depo (no sound). Spencer Kuvn was on camera talking about how terrible it was for these victims (In a hilarious note, they spelled his name incorrectly and imposed "Kubin" underneath him as he talked). It was a long piece by TV news standards. The basic assumption was that you assaulted these girls and they are traumatized by it, and now this has compounded their trauma. Watch for Kuvn's firm to take Brad in, or steal his cases.

Other than that, how'd you like the play, Mrs. Lincoln?
