No, I don't touch your emails. I don't even look at the computer screen when I am right next to you and you are working. You could have noticed by now that I take two steps back and turn my head every time you open the website. I am not interested. However, I have absolutely no responsibility towards [REDACTED] so if she leaves something open on a computer I use, I am not at all compelled to look away. And I take any opportunity that presents itself to learn just how conniving and manipulative these random girls are.

[REDACTED] knows what happened with Jennie and she knows I don't touch your emails. I haven't talked to her since I left NYC last. I am too embarrassed to tell her about your reaction to this and I am still in disbelief.
