Subject: symposia

F,
It would be fun to work on these symposia (and to attend them!) in some way... I would be game to start with the music one, to see if we could do it by dec. I saw Jaron again last night and he's game to join, especially in Dec. There were a few others that interested me:

power (though it sounded like you only wanted men to attend this...)
happiness
psycho pharma
and I'd love to figure something out with Dan Ariely something with Ghislaine and Dave Gallo on oceans...

Would want your office to do the logistics (travel, etc. for folks), venue, etc. I would talk to the attendees and work with you on a program.

You could also try to call my cell today -- I don't often have it near me when i work at home, but I do for a bit now... [REDACTED]

I do think the island is likely to be more private than West Palm.

I don't have a way to reach you, since the # I have goes into vmail at the FLA Sci Foundation.

I'm, right now, speaking either nationally or internationally at least once a month through year's end, writing and researching the email apnea stuff, working with U. Chicago to get research framed up around it, working on this idea of weight management through play and appreciation vs. shame, deprivation, and working on my own health. My father is in the weirdest limbo ever -- his wife had a pacemaker put in today. The cardiologist thinks she's a little nuts and needs to let him go and she won't hear of it....
