Subject: WTF

I was out with a friend talking to some guys last night... The one guy goes on to tell my friend and I about his friends wife.... That she's a model, a concert pianist, a teacher, a black belt... etc.... Jeffrey, WTF... Does every woman have to be superwoman? So much pressure. Is this really what men want nowadays???? JEEEEEZ! What happen to being a good person, a good cook, and actually a real woman?

Then this morning heading to work.... The ratio of woman to men going to work, was outrageous... What is this world coming to?
