Hi JE!

I really hope all is as well as can be at your end!

After 8 months, I have some good news! ...ironic news.... I will be the Executive Assistant for the COO of NYU Abu Dhabi! They will start their undergrad program next year and are starting this tremendous project now.

I will get my hands on all daily operations and it's a much more qualified position than the title suggests. It feels as if I'm back home!

I'll make more than before and work less.

If all goes according to plan, I will move to Abu Dhabi at then end of this month and start working!

On a different note and I know your reaction: I'm dating a married man. 14 years older. He's the best boyfriend I ever had! I just wish he would leave his wife...

Much much love, I'm always thinking of you,
