Jeffrey, I have several meetings in NY next week with Sikorsky and Eric Roth, I will visit the S76C++ in Pennsylvania on Wednesday, then four of Sikorsky's engineers are meeting me at Eric's shop in Islip on Thursday to discuss our interior completion.

Do you approve of Carmen's design of the Bose headset hangers below? see his note.

FYI: Trip cost:

The Cessna 182 cost $195.00 per hour, they would only give me a 5% discount.
My estimate for round trip Lantana to TEB, with possible stops in Coatesville PA.
18 hours x $185.00 = $3,330.00 plus landing fees when applicable.

I can rent a car and drive to Islip for meeting with Eric on Thursday, as oppose to flying the Cessna.

Thank you,
Larry
