Just arrived in Boston. Staying with George for the weekend. And since he's my cousins best friend, my whole family knows. It's now what there is to talk about.

Tried sending that yesterday, but didn't hit the send! I'm heading back to NY tomorrow to start up another full week. : ) my mom will be in town visiting and likely my friend Krystal from LA. I hope you are having fun at home in FL. Thinking of you. Good night from Boston.
