[REDACTED] doesn't think she can make it today. She is available tomorrow morning. Our deal was she comes when I get back and 'girls' like [REDACTED] were Not coming to visit while I am gone. It is embarrassing for me to remind you that you have again slowly worked your way to get exactly what you want despite what we agreed on. I give up. You win.

Do you want veronika to come to the house at 11 tomorrow?
