Ghislaine:

I wanted to make sure you got my e-mail from last night, so I'm copying Dana on it (See below) I also wanted to give you an opportunity to address other allegations that attorney Brad Edwards made to me this morning

Edwards claimed that, while his clients did not contend that they had sex with you, he's spoken to more than one girl who alleged they did have sex with you and Jeffrey Epstein

"She engaged in threesomes with various underage girls," said Edwards "She was on Epstein's plane, transporting girls for the the purpose of having sex with other people She kept a computer database of hundreds of girls and oversaw the schedule of girls who came to Epstein's homes, so the girls wouldn't run into each other. She played an important role in pulling off this crime. She is second-in-command of this sexual enterprise."

Again, you can e-mail me or call [REDACTED] Thanks.

George

Subject: Daily News story on Jeffrey Epstein

Ghislaine,

I left a message this morning at your New York number. Since I gather you're out of town, I want to make sure you know that we're working on a story about Jeffrey Epstein and give you a chance to respond to some of the allegations that have been made about you. Would you like to comment on the following:

1. Brad Edwards, an attorney who represents three of the women who have filed suit against Jeffrey, tells me that you were served with a Subpoena to Testify at a Deposition while you were at the Sheraton Towers attending the Clinton Global Initiative. Is that true? The Subpoena asks that you produce "a list of all girls" that visited Jeffrey Epstein's homes in Palm Beach and Manhattan, or flew on his planes, as well as any and all documents relating to his meeting with girls for massages. Will you appear at the deposition? Do you have any such documents and will you provide them?

2. Edwards contends that you helped Jeffrey find girls to give him massages. Did you? Were you aware of that, as Jeffrey himself admitted in his plea deal, he was "conspiring" to "knowingly persuade...minor females to engage in prostitution"?

Would you like to respond to any of the following allegations made in a lawsuit filed by "Jane Doe No. 102" against Jeffrey Epstein in federal court in Florida:

3. You met Doe 102 when she was 15 and working as a changing room assistant at

The Mar-a-Lago Club in 1998. You told the girl, and her father who was a maintenance manager at the club, that she could learn massage therapy and earn a "great deal of money" at Jeffrey Epstein's.

4. After the girl's father dropped her at Jeffrey Epstein's Palm Beach home, you led the girl "up a flight of stairs to a spa room [where Epstein] was lying naked on the massage table. Plaintiff was shocked, but, with no experience with massages, thought this could be massage therapy protocol. Ms. Maxwell then took off her own shirt and left on her underwear and started rubbing her breasts across Defendant's body, impliedly showing Plaintiff what she was expected to do. Ms. Maxwell then told Plaintiff to take off her clothes. The minor girl was apprehensive about doing this, but, in fear, proceeded to follow Ms. Maxwell by removing everything but her underwear. She was then ordered to remove her underwear and to straddle Defendant. The encounter escalated, with Defendant and Ms. Maxwell sexually assaulting, battering, exploiting, and abusing Plaintiff in various ways and in various locations, including the steam room and shower. At the end of this sexually exploitive abuse, Defendant and Ms. Maxwell giddily told Plaintiff to return the following day and told her she had 'lots of potential.' Defendant paid Plaintiff hundreds of dollars, told her it was for two hours of work and directed one of his employees to drive her home."

5. Jeffrey "lured" the girl "every day for next two weeks" to his house. You and Jeffrey telephoned the girl to make arrangements.

6. When Jane Doe presented photos of herself to give to Jeffrey, you objected to them because she was "fully clothed." You proceeded to photograph her "naked in different sexually explicit positions." You later presented the photos to Jeffrey as a birthday gift.

7. When you and Jeffrey celebrated Jane Doe's 16th birthday with her, Epstein joked that he would have to "trade her in" because she was getting too old for him.

8. You helped Jeffrey "to further" his "sexually exploitative acts" and "avoid police detection."

9. Not only was Jane Doe required to satisfy Epstein's "every sexual whim," but she also was exploited by Epstein's adult male peers. They included "royalty, politicians, academicians, businessmen and others in various locations around the world."

10. In addition to Palm Beach, Epstein took the girl to New York City, Santa Fe, Los Angeles, San Francisco, St. Louis, Europe, the Caribbean and Africa. In all of these locations, she was required to engage in sex acts with him and other women - including other minors.

11. "Most of these acts of abuse occurred during a time when defendant knew that the plaintiff was approximately 15, 16 and 17 years old and, after years of daily sexual exploitation continued into her adulthood ... until she fled at age 19,"

12. Epstein displayed photos of naked underage girls throughout his homes in Palm Beach, New York City, Santa Fe and the U.S. Virgin Islands, including a naked photo the victim saw of herself displayed in his Palm Beach home.

13. Are you still friendly with Jeffrey? When was the last time you saw him?

I know the allegations must be distressing to you. If you'd like to talk about them, feel free to call me at [REDACTED]. I'm not 100 percent sure when this story is running, but it could be as early as this Sunday, for which our deadline is Friday at 3 p.m.

Thanks much.

George
