Title: Tall kids

Remember....when you asked me "what is the most important trait for a child?"....and I said height ...then intelligence.

Well short kids at your alma mater, Dalton are now taking a growth hormone Humatrope, a designer drug for preteens that some experts call "Miracle-Gro for kids."

In Sunday's New York Post by Janon Fisher on page six....real page six, not Richard Johnson's column which is never actually on page six even though it's called "Page Six."

Friday Tilda Swinton invited me to a private cool downtown screening of her new Italian film, "I Am Love"....out in spring...

Saturday went to Hamptons....stayed at Naomi Marks Wolff's...with Elizabeth Thompson and had dinner at Ralph and Ala Isham's...she is Sunny von Bulow's daughter.

Sunday choppered to Jets game- four hours later they lost....Larry David with Richard Belzer (and his little dog "baby"), Hillary Swenk, Henry Kissinger and Greta van Susskind all in Woody Johnson's box...

About to go to sleep...just read Dalton parents giving their kids growth hormones....and had to send.....soooo funny.
