Subject: Lauderdale Boat show

Jeffrey,
Lauderdale Boat show is Thursday - Monday this week, FYI

the Samsung arrives Tuesday afternoon, Nick and Chris will install Wednesday, I still feel pretty sick, I do not want to infect [REDACTED] or YOU, with this.

Monday I will drive to Midnight express and deal with Harris and Eric. I want to go thru my check list of options on Monday.

Tuesday - Saturday, I have Sikorsky S76C++ school at west Palm beach with Darren, so we can be current for test flights in S76C++.

Larry Morrison is dealing with the corrosion issue on the Boeing, He recommended to wait till Boeing evaluates the area, and they are still looking for more corrosion at this time.

Thanks,
Larry
