[REDACTED] cell. When the house is done in La Jolla - you can stay there whenever you go out for your seminars, etc. Its going to be a really special piece of property. Great ocean view, tall pine trees and red tile roofs in the view. Located pretty much above Scripps Forum near La Jolla shores. One of the things that attracted us to La Jolla was all of the great medical, educational and cultural happenings there. I plan to spend about 30 - 40% of my time there. Hopefully, house will be finished late 2010. I will send you plans when they are ready. We are tweaking them now. International modern design. Hope to see you next month with WE. I am renting a house just below our building site for the month of August. Best, TK Bill Haseltine sends his regards.

Hi Jeff. Just got back from Aspen. Have you been to the Aspen Institute? Seems like your kind of place. July 15, right? Today's my birthday, thought about you. Best, TK
