Subject: Robin Hood and the PGA!

Title: Hi

Hi Jeffrey,

Hope all is well! I'm not sure if you are a golf enthusiast or know anyone who is but I wanted to give you a heads up on a possible sponsorship opportunity coming up in the next few weeks.

This August the PGA will come to NYC for the first time! The Barclays 2009 will be held at the Liberty National Golf Club on August 25-30. In partnership with Liberty National, Robin Hood is offering a select group of donors access to the event through sponsorship opportunities.

It promises to be an amazing event with the world's most prominent golfers in attendance (including Tiger!) on a terrific course overlooking downtown Manhattan.

Sponsorship opportunities for Robin Hood donors will be priced between $25,000 and $250,000 and include VIP access to the Veranda Suite on the 18th Green, access to all Oasis locations on the course, Clubhouse credentials, tickets to the Charity Gala as well as to the exclusive private reception prior to the tournament, field badges and much more.

Drop me a line if you think this might be interesting and I can get you all the details.

Thanks!

Rob

About The Barclays 2009:

- * The tournament begins with a Pro-Am on Wednesday, August 26th.
- * The Barclays is the first challenge of the PGA TOUR's demanding playoff series – The FedExCup - only 120 (of the original 144) of the players will be moving on to compete.

* With a winner's share of $1.35 million, 11,000 FedExCup points and a shot at the playoff prize of $10 million on the line, every shot of every round counts.

About Liberty National:

* Liberty National is a truly extraordinary golf course and membership is exclusive – there are only 90 members total.

* The course plays at a demanding 7,400 yards, par 70 and features the same "A4" hybrid bent grass greens found at Augusta National.

* The course has a mile-long waterfront and the Statue of Liberty is less than 1000 yards away – the views of the Manhattan Skyline and the Verrazano Bridge are a breathtaking backdrop.
