18. Now that is a good number, don't you agree?

Darren gave me a check yesterday. Thankyouthankyouthankyouthankyouthankyou!!!! It means a lot --- as did our time working together: from MacGyver mechanics and missed-it-by-a-heart attack dead scholars, to toupees and sound machines (with a bowl of KFC on the side); there was never a dull moment. As always, I emmencely valued thinking with you.

I am always here if you need me.

Again, thank you.

18. ;)
