Dear Jeff

As per our conversation, the following will be part of a larger team, perhaps 6 people in total to monitor your situation logistics will be worked out after an agreement is reached

It would appear that the cost to you for the time involved would be $20,000 per week plus expenses such as airline tickets, hotels, and food as well as any out of pocket expenses legitimately attached to this case.

I would anticipate rotary man power avg 2 weeks or so.

Included in this would be my making trips to Florida to meet with you and to monitor conditions. The only expense to you would be air fare, hotel, etc.- no extra charge for my time.

Please notify me as soon as possible if this is acceptable so we can formulate a formal agreement.
