ok. calling at next break!!! now at Economics of Science Brockman is trying to introduce Nathan to beautiful women and then telling Nathan how he's screwing it up.
Marvin is talking about shrinking people and killing cats.

Kahneman and his wife are in this session on economics of science, which, so far, is focused on combining machine learning and game theory.

larry page did a nice job with a talk on AI earlier
