Dear Jeffrey,

Hello! How are you?

I have tried contacting you personally but [REDACTED] able to speak to you.

I hope you are well.

I would prefer speaking to you, but please accept my letter.

As you heard, after three years since my accident, the case is finally settled.

I still had outstanding balance that had to be covered through my lawyer's office.

Right after that, my lawyers deducted 30% of what was left to cover their fees.

After all of the deductions - I've got by check from them.

I put it in my savings account.

As you remember, I was back to my modeling career even during the recovery. I was going to many different castings but haven't got any good jobs for the past three years. I was always careful with my spendings, living on my savings from before the accident.

You were very caring, helpful and supportive through out the whole time.
I was always very appreciative and still am.

Modeling is not bringing me jobs since the accident.

I have my baby- boy, Julien, who is 10 months now.

He is my happiness.

I need the money to support my parents back in Belarus (my father has retired from the Army), my baby and myself.

Please understand and do not take it from me.

Please forgive me for not contacting you earlier.

Best regards,
