Finally! you've been born to be free!
You made my day! Thank You for such a wonderful news!

I was about to go to Lyon for 5 months, but then your offer came up and this made me think of my decision all over again ... i have no doubts that being with you will teach me so many things.i am desperate for some action and if i could help you at some point i will be more then happy to go for it.and thank you for such a nice opportunity not just to get a great experience, but also earn some money.

welcome back! such a nice to have you here!
kisses!!!!!!!!!!!!
