From today's Daily Mail - just imagine what they might do when other members of the family arrive!

Prince Andrew's tricky invitation

The emergence from prison this week of U.S. playboy billionaire Jeffrey Epstein is bound to be followed by party invitations to his friend Prince Andrew. But the Prince - introduced to the flamboyant financier by fraudster Robert Maxwell's New York-based daughter Ghislaine - is unlikely to accept.

Epstein was jailed for soliciting sex from under-age girls. His release was marked by a fresh string of lawsuits from his alleged victims.

According to court papers, Ghislaine procured a 15-year-old female employee of a country club for Epstein, who later became his 'sex slave'.

It was Epstein, 56 - who has been a guest at Windsor Castle and Sandringham - who introduced Andrew to the pleasures of professional
