Title: Hamptons past weekend

Can you leave state?
Can you leave country?

My where abouts-

#1. Friday night we had a screening of "It Might Get Loud" a documentary on guitar players Jack White, The Edge and Jimmy Page by Davis Guggenheim, who won the Oscar for "An Inconvenient Truth"....
It poured but Alec Baldwin hosted with director and Lisa Robinson, music writer from VF...

#2. Saturday lunch- Allen Grubman had a lunch with Nora Ephron, Sir Howard Stringer, Diana Picasso living and supporting Gilles Bensemoun...Bob Balaban, Barbara Walters...

#3. Sat. Night- went to lesbian wedding reception of Peter Smith's daughter (he is from Lazard) and head of membership for Maidstone...at his Sagaponick home...hysterical- up tight wasps toasting lesbians...perfect.

#4. Lame outdoor screening at Liz Swig's (alcholic daughter of Macklow) of "Every Little Step" in Sagaponack for Film Society of Lincoln Center...stopped by for business...only celeb, Philip Seymour Hoffman

#5. Dinner at Jimmy Buffet's in North Haven...
Lorne Michaels, Richard Gere, Jimmy, Roger Waters, Donna Karan...very cool.

#6. Sunday dinner across the street from Bob Balaban's, where I was staying...at Sandy Gallin's for David Geffen...Nora, Barbara Walters, Louise Grunwald, Kelly Klein, Marci Klein, lots of pretty young boys...very well done...everyone talks about David's 500' boat and who gets invited...present trip has Sandy Gallin, Nora Ephron and Nick...Nora is celeb wrangler...she got Tom Hanks who got Bruce Springsteen and Ophra is coming too! What a group...they are on the Med for 3 weeks...

Almost a chic as a week on "Lady Joy" with Denise Rich! Not complaining- just making you smile.
