To get you started, here's a little tour of some of our main features:

Stations play your selected artists (plus similar artists we recommend)
To create a new station, just type in an artist and press play. To add more artists, just go to "My Home" and click "Add to Station".

Rate which songs to play more (or less)
To make your stations even smarter, just click the smilies in your player to rate which songs you want to play more or less.

Tune in to anybody else's stations!

The faces in your player are other people listening to similar music as you are.
Just click any song to tune in and listen!

Play more songs by an artist

If you want to play more songs by an artist, just click the orange "Songs" tab in your player - or any artist photo - and you'll see more songs by that artist that you can tune in to!

More music and people

Also, don't forget to check out the "music" section, where you can browse by genre and see what's new and popular on Jango. Or click "people" to search for friends and musical like-minds.

Hope to see you back on Jango soon - if you have any questions, just check out our FAQ, or message us from the feedback module on your Jango home!

Have fun,
/The Jango Jugglers
