They didn't take the 30k offer, plus install is going to be a full day of wall and mount prep, then a small crane to lift tv into place, estimate for install is 2k.

Plus 1500 for bracket. Just fyi full pricing.

Note; They only had a 10" Klipsch in stock, I put that in kitchen temporarily till they get me more 12" subs. I will put a 12inch Klipsch in bedroom also.

Thanks,

Larry v

Audio Advisors has two of their regular customers interested in the 103" panasonic. Just in case we are still interest. I don't think they are pushing, just giving us first shot at it.

As back up Nick in Chicago offered a demo unit for 38K. We could get it for 35 easy.

Just FYI.
