Title: Re: It depends on the problem, but my top picks for intellectual integrity (and people I'd most like to have dinner with) would be:

David Donoho
Danny Hillis
Nathan Myrsvold
Pam Samuelson – Berkeley Law School
Lee Smolin
Jaron Lanier
Freeman Dyson
Iain Johnstone – Stanford statistics

also:

Persi Diaconis – Stanford math
Charles Mathis - Google
Brad Efron – Stanford statistics

Lots of people I don't know well enough to make a judgement. My next step would be to ask them who they would recommend.. I might also ask Sam Kou and John Blitzstein at Harvard stat for recommendations, and perhaps Emmanuel Candes at Caltech. I'll probably come up with a few more as I keep thinking. Good question.
