Hey, how great is this - your contacting me!
Yeah, I'll send a picture but you have to send me one of you

My email:

A large black rectangular redaction box covering several lines of text.

Hardly ever go on classmates, but I was looking for an old friend's telephone number and lo and behold I see you contacted me, that is you, isn't it, I just can't seem to see you doing these silly websites, but hey you never know.
