Title: Re: African Equestrian Safari for [REDACTED]

Paula-

Great to hear from you.

I am tracking down [REDACTED]...she is finishing her junior year, an art major, has her own radio show, rides since she is 3, (hunters/jumpers) smart and adorable.

Sandy Cunningham, my sensational travel agent (Unchartered Outposts) is putting some ideas together for the girls...then, if we can find them...we can run it past them and have them talk and email Sandy directly and see what they want to do...

Jeffrey says [REDACTED] have to meet...and want to do this...and if this doesn't feel right for the girls they don't have to feel stuck...and can do something else.

More info to come.

xoxo Peggy

Greetings Peggy! Thanks for your email--I'm actually traveling on a pretty hectic schedule right now between Italy/France with my opera "business", so I have had much less correspondence in the last few days---Jeffrey says fantastic things about you too, so I look forward to getting to know you! I don't know any details about summer plans, but it all sounded exciting when Jeff mentioned making a "girl mitzvah" with Mattie and Miasha. I'm leaving a message for Miasha now to see what her plan is--there was talk this week of going to Paris, where her vocal coach is...so I'm a bit in the dark this moment. Tomorrow, I'll be back in Paris (NOT missing Salerno so much, except for the opera addicts here who are marvelous!) So, let's keep in touch on this--Jeff's offer is lovely and generous for these girls and so I'm happy to help make it happen! More when I catch up with Miasha. All the best, Paula

Paula-

I am a friend of Jeffrey Epstein's and he suggested we meet by email and/or talk on the phone.

As you know both [REDACTED] are exactly the same age and ride....and Jeffrey wants to do something for them for August.

I had this idea of having [REDACTED] meet (although [REDACTED] seems to know who [REDACTED] is thru the horse circuit)and Jeffrey says if they like each other, he will send them both on an Equestrian safari in Kenya for part or all of August.

If they do not want to do this together, he will still send them anyplace they want to go seperately....

I was just in Palm Beach this weekend and visited him on Saturday...we discussed the trip a bit. I have a sensational travel agent, Sandy Cunningham owner of Unchartered Outposts, who organized [REDACTED] and my safari two xmas holidays ago, also in Kenya and Lamu that was sensational...

Both [REDACTED] were supposed to call us Saturday when we met and that did not happen. Jeffrey and I are still trying to figure that one out.

How much do you know about this idea/trip and are you interested in us getting more information?

Jeffrey says the most marvelous things about you and I look forward to corresspounding with you.
