Hey there!

Buon giorno!

I brought your Igor DVD to your NY office:) Igor and I exchange ideas and I was happy to be able to see what he does to brew on ideas that may be helpful to him!

I moved into my new place officially last night. Its at [REDACTED] very convenient and I like Colombus Circle. I still left early for my 7AM to walk through Central Park to the studio at 58th & Lex. And I saw a black egret (bird) at the little pond and a big 'ol goldfish a little over a foot long! I guess they thought 6:30AM is a nice, quiet time to come out! Been rather rainy here, have a few more days of it too but the park is turning a lush green:)

BBBBBBBBBBBBGG hug n a kiss into your day!
