You are right. The cushion and fabric and trim is included, yes, the clubs do swivel and I will determine the largest desk that will be in good proportion with the room. J.P

The Office/ Library:

After Fancelli finishes the installation, I will decide if the color of the paneling is adequate for the overall ambiance.

The desk will be a bronze contemporary desk (Design JPM) with a modern swivel desk chair.

The desk lamp also contemporary. The sitting area will consist in four large scaled club chairs upholstered in a cut cotton velvet (Bevilacqua Fabric), two contemporary reading light, a coffee table (Design JPM) with a unique tiger coral parquetry top, a pair of contemporary Celestial and Terrestrial Globes (Design JPM, from the movie by John Ford).

The carpet will be a sisal and the hardware for the cabinetry is all bronze with shapes of marine fauna.

I understand that you have approved this concept since the date I presented you the rendering of the office/library. I would appreciate if you can instruct your staff to let me proceed without any obstacle knowing that the deadline is January 1st, 2010.
