I spoke with Rich,
The lanterns would be under the home owners insurance but given the deductible it would not be worth it

Please advise

To JEE:

Attached photo showing x 7 metal lanterns, which were the replacements for the lanterns in the Tiki House. These were stored in 1 of the deteriorating containers. They were sitting in approx 6 inches of water, hence the entire lower section is rusted thru. I would recommend that we save electrical section & dispose of.

Please advise
