Dear Jeffree

Checked dates and the following would be good:

Leaving Cape Town Friday 24th July (not working so can leave any time in day)
Depart US Sunday 9th August (morning flight would be best) arriving Cape Town Monday 10th.

(I like to sit as far forward as possible next to the window and am a vegetarian. Sorry to be fussy but it is a loooong flight.)

Do you remember that I would also love to spend time with Natalia in NY. I can organise internal flights if it makes it easier for you. I spoke to her recently and she sends you lots of love.

Let me know if this suits you, I am sorry it has ended up being later than I had expected. If tickets are too expensive please let me know and we can try for another time.

Lots of love to you xxxx
