I was called late yesterday evening by [REDACTED] lawyer in LA. His details are as follows:

Dennis ROACH

[REDACTED]
I asked him who would be handling the conveyance on [REDACTED] behalf in the UK and he told me they had not appointed anyone yet and he was currently looking for a suitable firm of solicitors to do this and would let me know in due course.

Needless to say, he also asked me to provide details of the potential purchaser, which I said I would do shortly.

Are you in a position to enter a dialogue with Mr Roach? Even if just to buy some time? I am concerned that if there is no communication they might lose interest and look elsewhere.
