Dear Jeffrey , just this morning i open my email box...too much things to do before exams...plus friends takes so much time...i never had such an intensive communication with people as i have now...they are young, very intelligent,lettered,rich with ideas,real and antural people...by this friendship i feel growing up my personality...really,it is amazing to feel what you need, what you want...to know who you are...

I am still thinking what i am going to do-going back to [REDACTED] and starting pilates, or staying here in [REDACTED] and trying to find my self doing little business..

life is about choice...

it takes me long to decide.i'm just naturally worried about finding an extra job,apartment in [REDACTED]...but i'm definitely feel sure about what i want.i want to have something secured, the important thing for me is quality of life. [REDACTED] can't offer nothing like that at the moment maybe later and having pilates certification no matter where i am [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]... i always have a job.it is not easy job at all...and not easy to achieve what i wish-open my own pilates studio,spa...but everything is possible if you really want it.it takes long time, energy, love,responsibility...i think i am ready for that...and i do love Geneva.

Jeffrey i miss you so much! how are you? ...i hope i could come for a while to US after all my exams...

Kisses, hugs...
